

Image not found or type unknown

Projektblatt

Main sewage treatment plant

We supported the reconstruction and expansion of the main sewage treatment plant in Vienna, from stakeout work to height markers for excavation support and construction phases. This involved monitoring the basins and septic tanks for settlements and tilting. The greatest challenge was: optimally equipping the individual structures with sensors without interfering with ongoing operation.

<https://www.hogersberger.com/en/references/main-sewage-treatment-plant-vienna>

