

Image not found or type unknown

Projektblatt St. Ägydus chapel

The baroque chapel, erected on the edge of the Fischbach municipality, was endangered by its hillside location. This made restoration and stabilisation work necessary. We delivered the basis for this in the form of a full survey using a 3D laser-scanner as well as a photogrammetric survey of the artistically conceived surfaces.

<https://www.bogensberger.com/en/references/aegydius-chapel>

Profile

